

Care Workshop

Student Projects

Master Media Design, HEAD - Genève + Bibliothèques de Genève

Shortened URL

<https://bit.ly/head-md-care-projects>

Projects

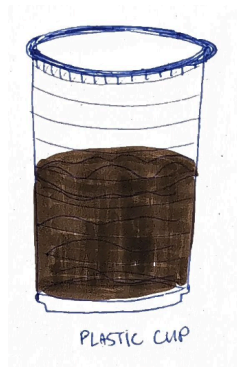

Students have created a one-page, short pitch on their dedicated page below. See the brief for more details. This pitch will be demoed and discussed with Cassandre & Muriel on 2025-05-19.

thé / café

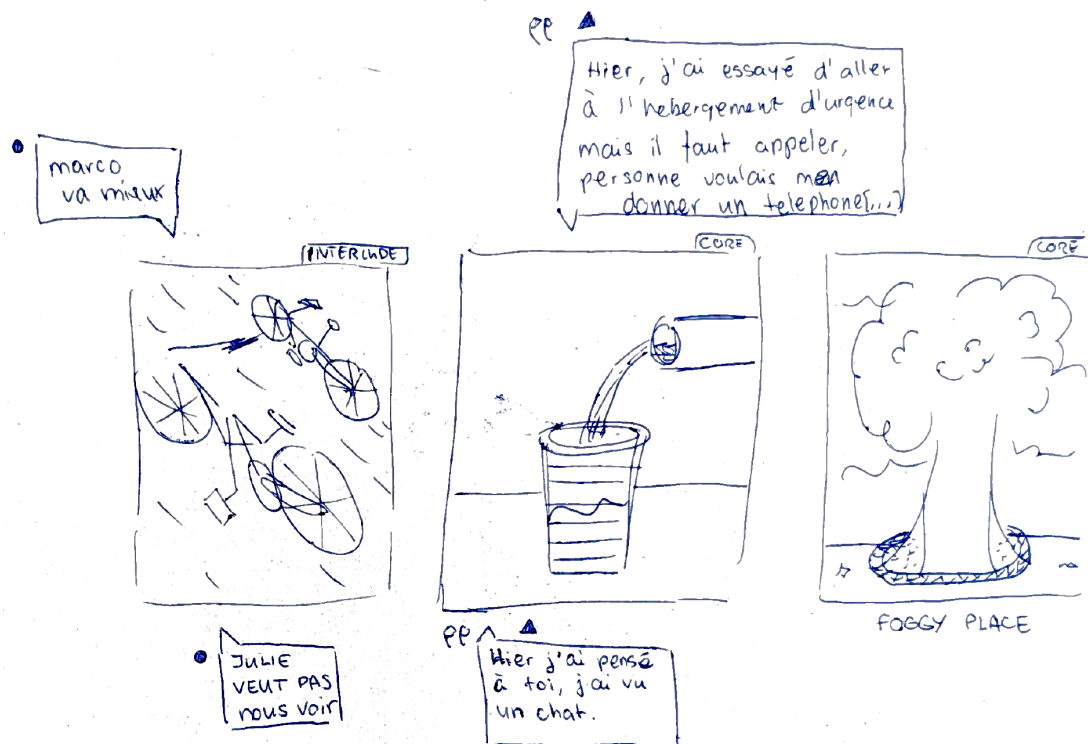

Vincent Paley, Antony Neyret, Elena Gazzarrini

Context

The Street

Two people on their bicycles pedal through the grey streets; through the fog, they see Marco sitting on a bench under a big tree, next to his stack of luggages. As they approach and offer him a tea or a coffee, the fog lifts up and reveals details about the surrounding environment. The cup empties as the conversation unfolds. We follow them as they repeat the simple act of offering tea or coffee to people inhabiting the streets of Geneva as the night evolves.

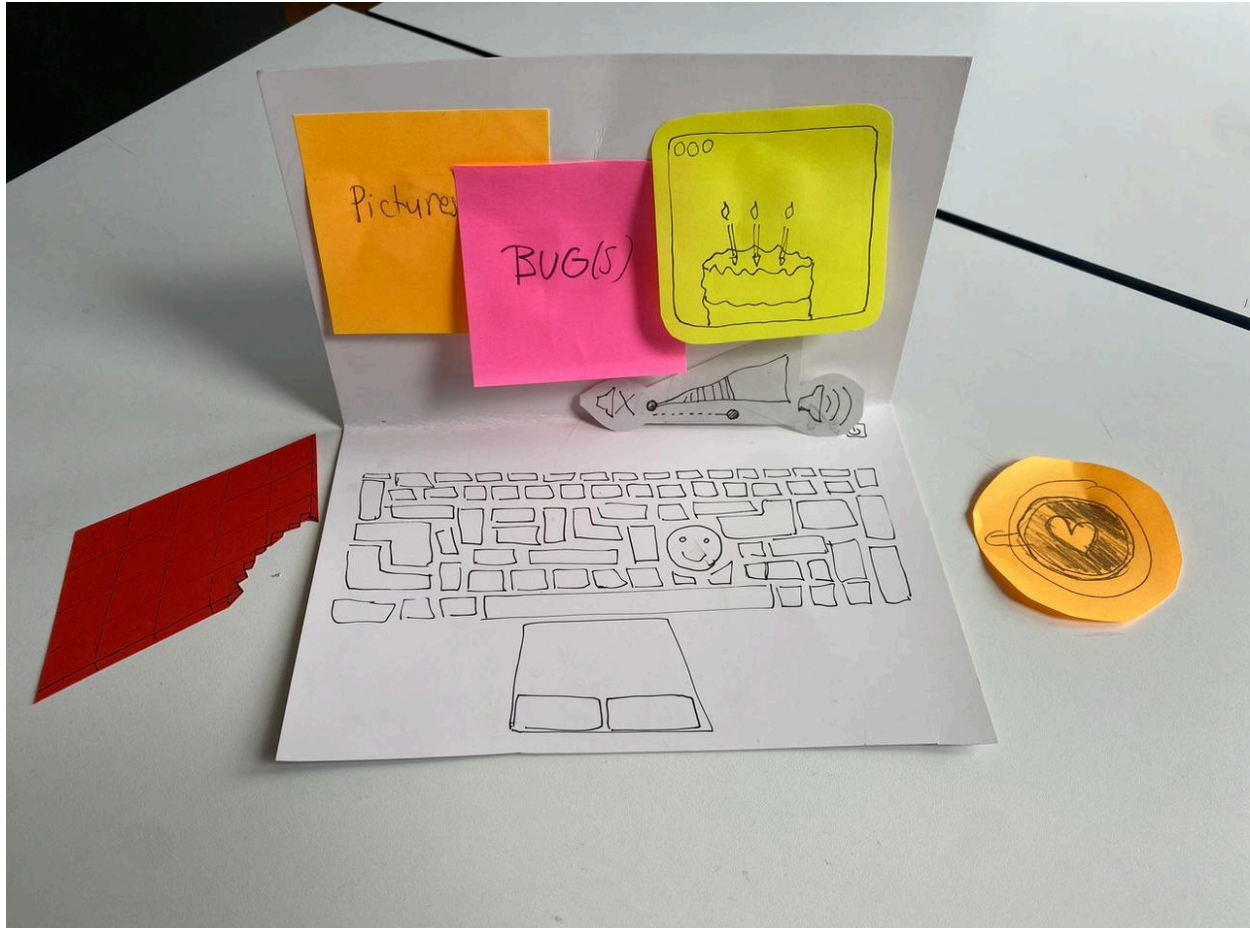

As Time Goes By

Ariadne MELISSARGOS, Alireza ASNAVANDI, Julia SANGNAKKARA

Context

Maison de l'Adret

In an intergenerational cohabitation building, a student named Ibrahim helps a senior resident, Anna, with some computer issues. Ibrahim gradually discovers that one of Anna's close friends chose to end her life through assisted suicide provided by an association called EXIT.

For the rest of the story, we are thinking about two dilemmas. One is about Ibrahim, as he decides whether to ask Anna more questions about her deceased friend or not. It may deepen their relationship, or it may make Anna feel insecure. Another idea, which is related to the first one, is Ibrahim choosing whether to keep the memory of Anna's friend, as an image on her computer, or not. This raises the question of whether keeping a dead person's memory alive or not.

Questions

- Can we use sound to tell our story ? What are the limitations ?

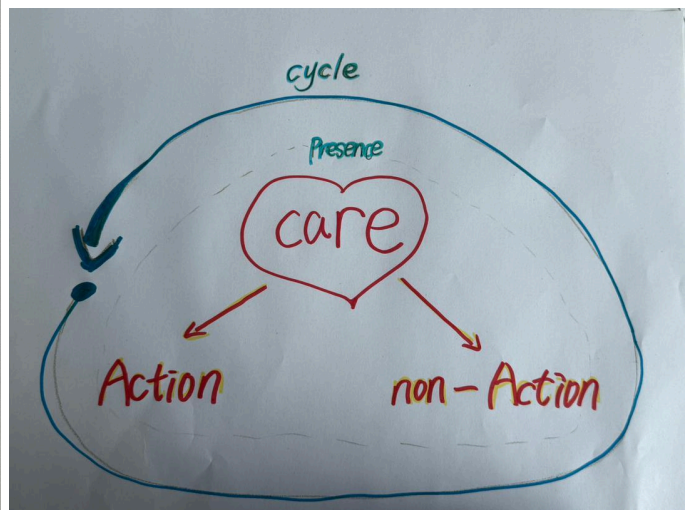

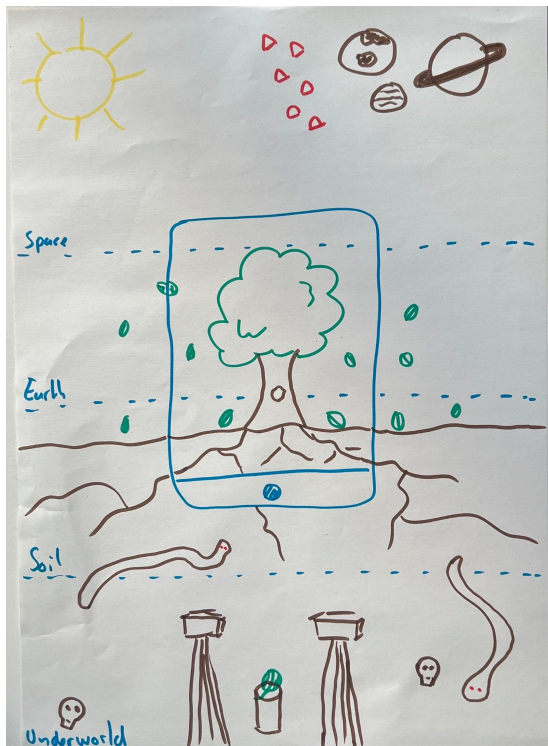

Let it lie

Eryan Chen, Nicolas GROSFORT

Context

Cemetery

Hans, a gardener in a cemetery, performs his daily tending tasks until one day, following a red string, he digs a hole and discovers a passage to an underground world. From spring to winter, he travels through four layers - underworld, roots, surface, sky - encountering the living and non-living that inhabit each. At every step, he faces the same dilemma : does this moment ask for his action, or simply for his presence?

Questions

- What is important for you in the representation of a cemetery? - Geneva
- Who is speaking? Which point of view? - No matter
- What place is there for magical things as a metaphor to talk about life and death? - Open

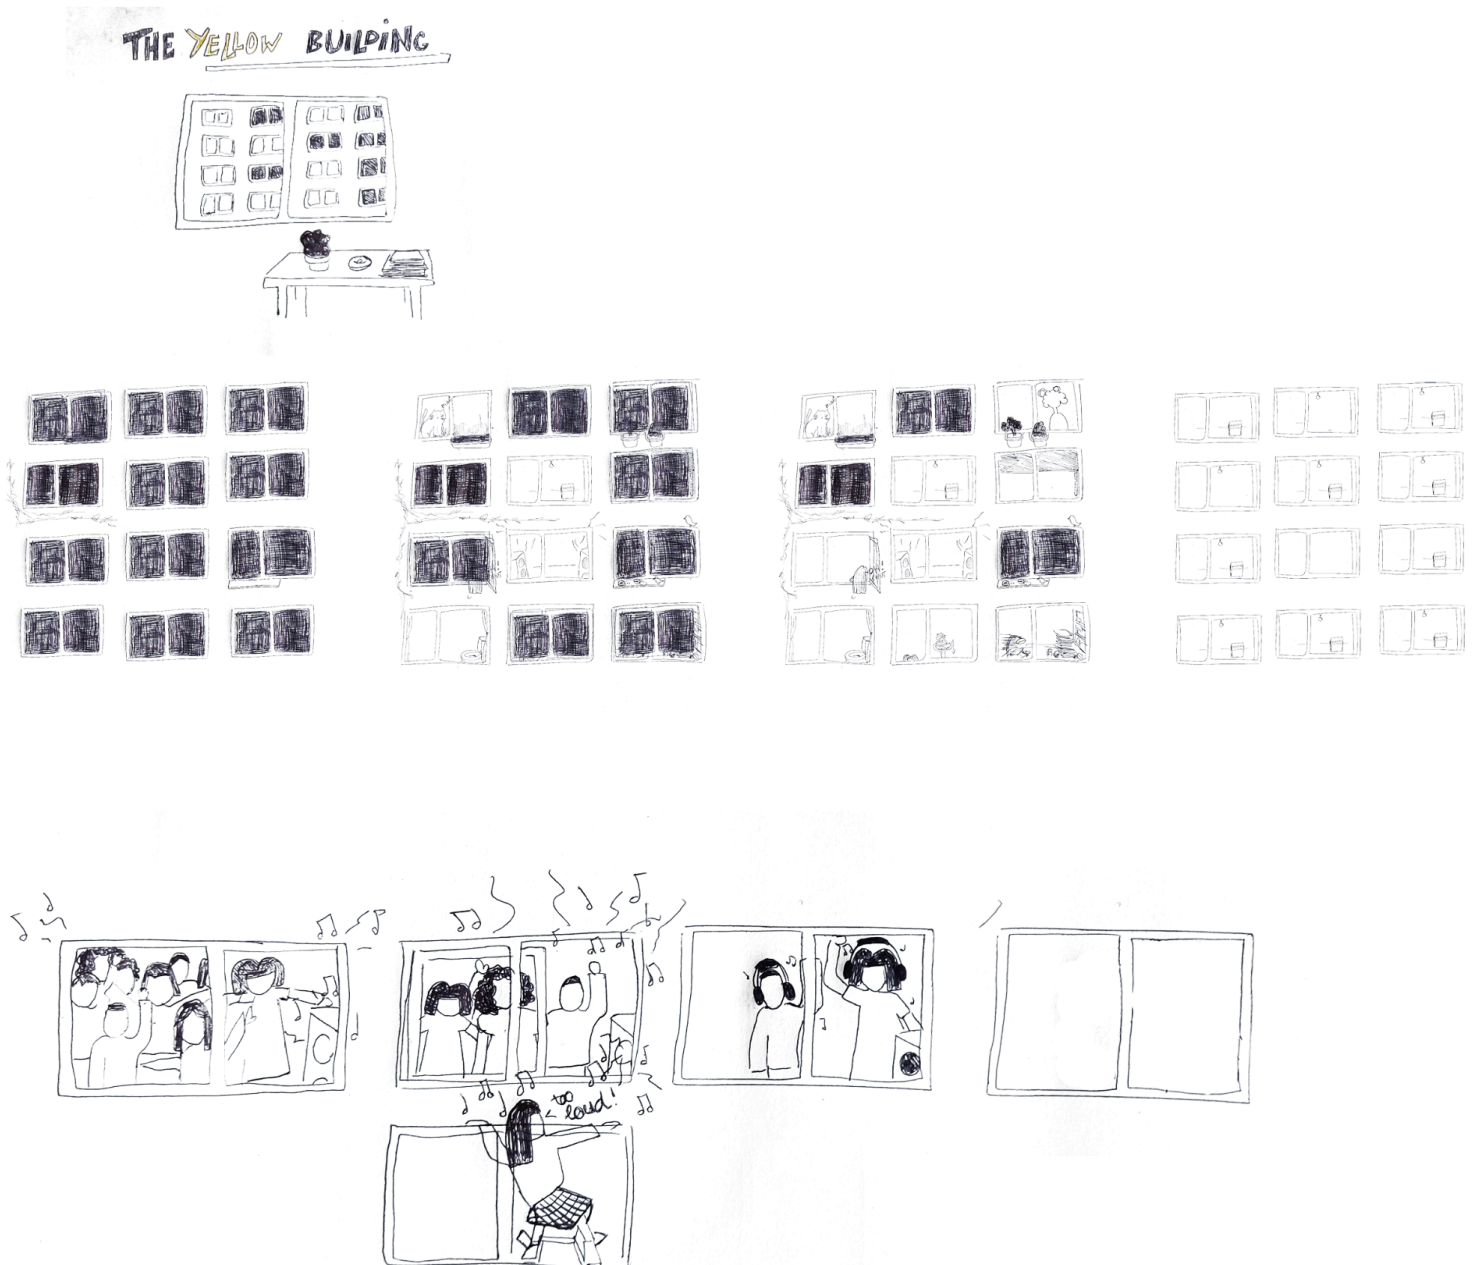

The Yellow Building

Gold KIM, Zhanlan WANG, Lisa GIRAUD

Context

Les Augustins-L'immeuble Place des Augustins

Through my window, I see the yellow building. Every light shining through a window is a whole life. One by one, the lights are gradually going out. I see people on the other side. The sounds of people talking and laughing through the windows give the building warmth and life. Only a few lights remain. I try to capture the moments of these residents to preserve them. Just one last flash of light. The building goes dark, and those memories go with it.

Kykyky !

Zainab OURIACHI, Maria SARAFI, Rokhy NIANG

Context

Cohabitation

Kykyky Animation

Seen through baby Rokhy's eyes, the story follows the first three years of her life in a cohabitation apartment with Lucky, an English bulldog, and Cheeky, a Maine Coon cat.

Rokhy and Lucky are born on the same day in neighboring apartments and quickly become inseparable. Lucky rocks her in the living room, sleeps beside her, and watches over her. Life is peaceful until Cheeky, a grumpy cat, moves in on her robot-cleaner "throne." She constantly bumps into Lucky and Rokhy, eats Lucky's food, and completely ignores Rokhy's complaints. The tension between the three cohabitants slowly rises.

But when Lucky falls ill, Cheeky begins to soften. Together, Rokhy, Lucky, and Cheeky become the KyKyKy team and learn that living together means caring for one another.

Baked Fragments

Kostas KATKEVICIUS, Carla Noëlle MARTINI, Luca CORREIA DA ROCHA

Context

Tea Room

Intention

Over the years, Monika's café has become a whole world filled with gifts, but the sad time has now arrived for the shop to close. When the very first object ever given to the café shatters, a new customer named Tom starts putting the pieces back together. As the pieces come back together, the café's beautiful history unfolds, but it also brings us progressively closer to the café's end.

Cardboard / Paper prototype :

